WHAT YOUNG PEOPLE HAVE SAID

“It made me think about things more and ask questions.”

“I wish I learned this in primary school.”

“I know more about society and Scotland’s history. I walk past things everyday, and now I know more about them.”

WHAT STAFF HAVE SAID

“Very well run, and welcoming atmosphere. A great space for dialogue.”

“Young people are more equitably supported and the impact on young people from minority ethnic groups is evident in the way they engage with IYS.”

WHY US?

We are a team of passionate educators committed to making learning transformational. We have a wealth of experience working in anti-racism, rights and equalities across a range of settings. We tailor each workshop to suit your group’s needs, age groups, and curriculum goals.

WORKSHOPS

These are our core educational inputs, which are available as either single or double period options. These workshops are suitable to be adapted for any age from P4 up to S6. The options in purple below are available for BGE - we also offer more advanced sessions for S5-6, as well as staff training sessions.

If your school is geographically remote, we have the option to deliver our sessions virtually, and will also provide resources or digital opportunities.
